※ The Korea-Eureka Innovation Forum and Eureka Academy are also broadcast LIVE online.

Korea Eureka Day is an event that aims to expand the international technology cooperation network between Korea and Europe, and to identify international joint research partners and collaborative projects between global academia and industry.

Eureka is the world's biggest public network for international cooperation in R&D and innovation, present in over 45 countries.

The Korea Eureka Day, hosted by the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy, and organized by Korea Institute for Advancement of Technology(KIAT) with the support of the Türkiye Chairship and the Eureka Secretariat, aims to expand and broaden the exchange of ideas and cooperation between Korean and European R&D stakeholders.

This year's event will focus on Next Generation Semiconductor, Future Energy and Mobility. Participants will have the opportunity to learn about the latest development in these sectors and connect with potential business partners!
