

HOW DOES IT WORK?

To sign up, head to heritageresearch-hub.eu.

Click the blue icon on the top right of the page and then "Create an account".

With the account, you could:

- Publish news, events, documents, funding, or training & vacancies;
- Create a page to introduce your organisation or research project.

(The administration team reviews all contents before the publication)

WHAT IS THE HERITAGE RESEARCH HUB?

It is a platform on and for the cultural heritage research community aiming to:

- Create an online location where everyone who works in or with cultural heritage-related research can share and search for different contents,
- Inform about the cultural heritage research general framework by introducing the heritage research policies, the various stakeholders involved or research projects;
- Collect and display online resources on and for heritage research;
- Provide information about the JPI CH and its activities.
